"B&W Pulls Ads From Vibe, Not Spin"
Wall Street Journal (01/13/00) P. A2

In its Corrections and Amplifications column, the Wall Street Journal says a story it ran on Wednesday in which Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corp. CEO Nicholas G. Brookes had stated the firm had removed its ads from Vibe after the magazine said its minor readership had risen above 15% was incorrect. B&W has now clarified that Brookes meant to say that Spin was the magazine from which the firm pulled its ads.
